- A. Yes, it was.
- Q. Now, Miss Wenner you have testified that Edith O. Garrott died intestate?
- A. Yes.
- Q. Who did she leave surviving her, other than yourself?
- A. She left surviving her a sister, Edna V. Wenner, who was my Mother. Mother willed all of her interest, whatever it may have been, in said real estate to me. Then, she also left John Garrott Hays, the son of a deceased sister, Lucy Hays. I acquired the interest of John Garrott Hays by deed dated November 4, 1957, which said deed was recorded also on April 20, 1961.
- Q. What other relatives, if any, did Miss Garrott leave?
- A. She also left or there were also some children of a deceased sister, namely Annie Selina Fout Koons, who died in 1907, intestate, leaving the following children: Ella Louise Houser, her daughter, who married Gus C. Houser; Frank T. Koons, her son, who married Edna May Koons; Matilda G. Moriarty, her daughter, who is a widow; Mary Agnes Stone, her daughter, who married John E. Stone; and Ann Rebecca Anderson, her daughter, who died in 1937, after marrying Richard C. Anderson, leaving Anna R. Beasley, their daughter, who married Lloyd L. Beasley; and M. Jane Robey, her daughter, who married Lawrence C. Robey; however, by a deed dated November 4, 1957, and recorded on April 20, 1961, I acquired the interest to said real estate of John Garrott Hays, who I have already mentioned, Frank T. Koons and Edna May Koons, his wife, Anna R. Beasley and Lloly L. Beasley, his wife, Mary Agnes Stone and John E. Stone, her husband.
- Q. Do you know the addresses of Matilda G. Moriarty, Ella Louise Houser, M. Jane Robey and Lawrence C. Robey, her husband, Gus C. Houser and Richard G. Anderson?
